A Reporting Idea that Saves Money

IT is reassuring in this time of industrial uncertainty and high prices to know that the decisions of the courts of last resort may still be had at a very moderate cost.

This is due to the group plan of publishing reports, conceived and adopted many years ago by the West Publishing Company, whereby the forty-eight states are separated into seven groups, and each group covered by a single reporting publication.

It will afford us pleasure to give you complete information concerning the Reporter which includes the State in which you expect to practice.
